Dutch Worldwide Zeebrief

Unique – Worldwide – All-in

Verified customers rate us as 'excellent'.
We have a five star rating at Trustpilot.

Thank you for your interest in the Dutch Worldwide Zeebrief Registration. This is the highest level of boat registration The Netherlands has to offer. This boat registration gives your boat or yacht the formal Dutch nationality. It is issued by the Dutch Ministry of Transport and the Dutch government in the name of our head of state, the King of the Netherlands.

With this formal and top quality yacht registration, your boat or yacht can sail to any country in the world, giving you a warm welcome, without any problem.

We also provide boat registrations, registered under other nationalities. Such as the highly respected and the popular and affordable Polish boat registration. You can compare boat registrations to see which boat registration suits your needs.

Benefits of a Dutch Worldwide Zeebrief Registration

- ✓ Fully accepted by the nautical authorities and government of any country in the world
- ✓ Yacht gets the formal nationality of the Kingdom of The Netherlands and which is issued by the Dutch government in name of the King

How does it work?

Do you need a Dutch Worldwide Zeebrief Registration? Yacht Registration Holland can apply the registration request for you. As we communicate entirely in English, we serve customers from all over the world. Of course we'd be happy to speak to you in Dutch too.

For a Dutch Worldwide Zeebrief Registration we need the following documents:

- Copy of your notary legalized passport or ID card
- Original Bill of Sale
- Original proof of deletion of the previous registration
- In case the yacht is over 24 meters the owner needs to provide an ITC69 Certificate himself. This has to be done by an approved classification company. Here you can find the list of approved classification company's: <https://www.ilent.nl/onderwerpen/erkende-organisaties-zeevaart/documenten/publicaties/2021/12/06/overzicht-erkende-klassenbureaus>

When applying for a Dutch Worldwide Zeebrief Registration, you just need to follow a few steps in our online registration process. When we have received the required documents, we will submit your information to request the Dutch Worldwide Zeebrief Registration.

The Dutch Cadastre will send their inspector on board of your boat or yacht for inspection and do the marking and carving. This is a one-time inspection. Please note that naturally, Yacht Registration Holland manages the entire process.

After completion, you will get send your boat registration by overnight courier.

I do not have an European passport

Anyone can get an Dutch Worldwide Zeebrief Registration. If you are not owning an European passport we can still request a Dutch Worldwide Zeebrief Registration for you. It is necessary that the ownership of the boat lies within Europe. This can be done by setting up an an Irish Limited Company under your name of which you are the only owner. Yacht Registration Holland will arrange the whole process.

After we've created your new Irish Ltd., you prepare a new bill of sale to transfer the ownership of your boat or yacht to your new Irish Ltd. This way the ownership of your boat now lies within the EU.

Please note that the company, of which you are the only owner, will not be active and so you do not have to pay any taxes nor do you have any other obligations. You don't even need an Irish bank account. As we are an experienced company in the Dutch Worldwide Zeebrief registrations, we have this entire process systematically figured out and available in a simple online registration form.

If you have any doubts, please read the feedback that we have been given by our satisfied customers from all over the world. You can read their personal experiences with our company on the bottom of this page (verified references by TrustPilot).
